Farewell, Ms. Staffieri

DENISE STAFFIERI

We, the Class of 2010, would like to dedicate this yearbook to the one and only, Ms. Denise Staffieri. Ms. Staffieri has worked here at Southbridge High for the past thirty four years, first as a teacher, and then as a guidance counselor. Ms. Staffieri has been a great help to her many students throughout the years. She will be remembered and missed by everyone. In this interview, she recalls some of the highs and lows of her career:

What was your favorite memory at SHS ?
I have many wonderful memories, but, to name one would be when the SHS student body voted for me as "Ms. Patience" in 2002. A recorded commercial created by the students was heard on WXLO 104.5 FM for a couple years.

What are you going to miss the most at SHS when you leave?
The constant interaction with high school students. Besides being a teacher for 29 years and a guidance counselor for 5 years, I was a class advisor for four classes: 1983, 1994, 1998, 2005, and took students on trips to Florida, New York City, Boston, Mexico, and Puerto Rico.

What are some of your plans when you retire?
Relax, travel, and spend more time with my family. Especially my grandchildren. I'll enjoy not getting up so early (5:30 AM). I'm not a morning person! If I get bored, I'll consider a part-time job.

What was your hardest day and why?
When I had lunch duty and there was a food fight. I felt betrayed.

What is the first thing you are going to do on your first day of retirement?
Nothing unusual, but, I know I won't be getting up at 5:30 AM! Maybe stay home, go shopping, or go out to eat- whatever I want to do!

2010 Class History

By: Kelsie Tremblay

On August 28th, 2006, we strolled into the doors of Southbridge High School as the "guinea pigs" for the new addition to the school, Freshman Academy. Located in the Cole Trade building and secluded from the rest of the students, we began getting used to our new surroundings and tried our best to avoid getting hit by senior cars pulling out of the parking lot. Although our eighth grade class had over 200 students, we were starting our high school career with about half of that, 115. Late September rolled around, and it was time to elect our first class officers. Without surprise, we elected Samantha Jones as our Class President, Kelly Blake as Vice President, Jody Hayes as Treasurer, Danielle Lafleche as Secretary, and Danny Lora as Historian. We began fundraising for the much anticipated upcoming event, the Thanksgiving Rally. Selling braided breads and tasty cookie dough was our brilliant fundraising idea, leaving us with hardly enough to pay for the Thanksgiving activities. The theme for the rally was Las Vegas, and we cleverly found a way to combine Michael Jackson, a wedding between Kelsie Tremblay and Nick Ward, and Napoleon Dynamite into an unexpected 2nd place skit that we loved to brag about. After finding Mrs. McKinstry Gentry Allen's keys, we continued to make the seniors jealous. We attended a number of field trips such as the Newport Mansions and Gillette Stadium. We then ended the year with the last field day that will probably ever be held and said goodbye to our beloved history teacher Mrs. Jowett.

Our second year of high school was to begin and we were already approaching problems. The list stating who had paid their dues was missing, and we were already in the negatives. What a way to start our sophomore year. On a lighter note, we were finally let out of the "cage" and discovered what the other side of the building looked like. With our new principal, Mr. Bishop, and our new assistant principal, Mr. Leach, came a new rule; no hoodies and no sweatpants. After unwillingly adjusting to this new rule, we elected our new officers. We elected Donnie Altiery as our Class President, Kelly Blake as Vice President, Mike Agbortoko as Treasurer, Danielle Lafleche as Secretary, and Kelsie Tremblay as Historian. The rally was coming up again, and we were less than ready for it this year. The theme was "Dancing through the Decades," and we selected the 80's. After a slight mix up with the music, the sophomore curse was continued and we "twisted" into a last place finish for skit, poster, spirit, and the parade. YOU inc., a program for underprivileged students that would like to attend college was started at our school. Fifty students from the school attended summer classes, SAT and MCAS prep courses and tutoring sessions, as well as visited colleges to help them prepare them for their futures. Next in line for us was the wretched MCAS test that no one wanted to sit through; however it was a very important part of our future and even more of a big deal for the teachers. We sat there for hours taking the test that would help us to graduate.

Junior year came quickly, and we noticed a change in our building once again. The library was missing and in its place, a new hallway and a courtyard. Class elections were held and our class officers remained the same, except for our new Secretary, Stephanie Rossi. We began raising money for prom and eventually formed a prom committee. We decided "In My Life" would be held at the Sturbridge Host Hotel. The Thanksgiving rally arrived again with the "Disney" theme picked by the Student Council and we created a hilarious skit featuring characters such as Eeyore played by Hashian Rosario, and Snow White, ironically played by the wonderful Mike Agbortoko. The dwarfs competed in a cheerleading tournament against the witches' henchmen and brought home the trophy after Donnie Altiery, playing Prince Charming, woke Snow White with his cherry chap-stick lips; "He kissed a girl, and he liked it". Although our skit and poster were outstanding, the first place position was taken from us. The new year quickly approached and we began looking into colleges and scheduling SAT dates. Much to the seniors' surprise, we pulled off an amazing prom fully equipped with coozies and garters. As the seniors' said their final goodbyes, we took over as the senior class of 2010 replacing the short shorts and the football "players".

Finally it was August of 2009, and with our new seniority also came the stress and the plague of senioritis. Hundreds of college letters overflowed our mailboxes, and we began to decide where we would be applying. Class elections came around and we decided to pick a new class president, Jody Hayes, and a new treasurer, Scott Dowling. Throughout the constant stress of senior year, we still had to pick a theme for our last Thanksgiving Rally. We decided on "Under the Sea" and immediately claimed "Finding Nemo". However, our decision was unheard because Mrs. B, the freshmen advisor, was far too loud and determined to use the theme for her own class. Instead we wrestled through ideas and finally picked "Spongebob Squarepants" for our underwater skit. Although our skit was hilarious to us, we were proven wrong when the crowd was silent for the majority of our skit. Luckily however, the teachers' skit gave the crowd a comic relief and got their minds off of our Spongy mess. Much to our embarrassment and breaking the senior tradition, we came in second for skit, however, first for poster and first for school spirit, even with the 65 kids that we had left in our class. We were then informed of this years' prom whose theme, "Fire and Ice", is a theme we are surprisingly excited for because the juniors haven't always been known to be the most involved class.

June is approaching and we are running down to our last days at Southbridge High School. Graduation is growing near and as we look back on the last four years, they were right; it was the best time of our life. The unforgettable memories, the horrible mistakes, and the hilarious stories, will all be left behind as we embark on our own expedition into to world. Although there aren't many of us, we have still grown and matured together, leaving not only the reputation of the smallest class to graduate from Southbridge High, but the class that always came together in the end.

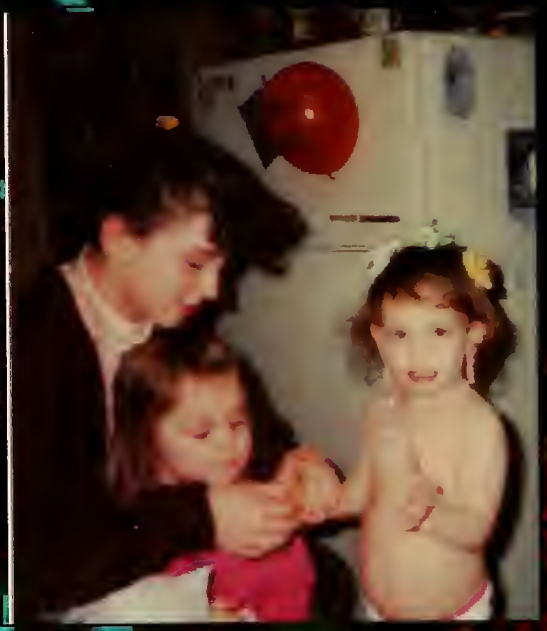
Best friends: Molly, Ashley, Rachel, Kelsi

Best memory: Junior prom
Favorite qoute: "I believe that everything happens for a reason. People change so that you can learn to let go. Things go wrong so that you can appreciate them when they go right. When you believe lies, you eventually learn to trust no one but yourself. And, sometimes good things fall apart so that better things can fall together."

Nicole Shilnsky

Brittany



Favorite quote: "Shoot for the moon; even if you miss, you'll land among the stars."

Best friends: Iesha torres, Kirsty Lou, and Desiree!

Favorite memory: When Angel dressed up as a woman during Study Skills and walked down the hall way!

Dylan St. Germaine

Activities: Video games, music, slacking off in english class, computers.

BEST FRIENDS:
Bruce Lopez, Brett French
Nick Ward, Kelsie [illegible]

FAVORITE BAND:
THREE DAYS GRACE,
PARAMORE,
BROKENCYDE

Never Forget When:

[illegible]

Wanted to, but never did:
Watch the entire When They Cry series

Advuce for the Freshmen:

Don't be afraid to be yourself
Don't act like anything you're not just for attention

[illegible]uture Plans:

To become an amazing bioinformatist computer scientist

iesha torres

Nickname: Chi-chi

Activities: Sleeping, eating, and being with my nephew.

Best friends: Kirsty and Brittany

Favorite music: R&B, Hip Hop, techno, and spanish music.

Never forget when: I made honor roll.

Future Goals: To go to college and make a great future for my daughter.

Nickname: Kelso

Activities: varsity cheerleading, varsity softball, Student Council, Class Historian, Yearbook Editor, Activities Coordinator

Best Friends: Nate Power and Marissa Duval

Favorite Music: Everything from Led Zepplin to Third Eye Blind to Lady Gaga :)

Advice for Freshmen: Try your best to get good grades; your senior year will come faster than you think & you'll regret it if you don't get into the college you would like to attend.

Never Forget When: I broke my nose at cheerleading practice and when Stephen made it home from being in the hospital.

Future Goals: Become a nurse, find someone I can spend the rest of my life with, have children, and live a successful and happy life.

Kelsie Tremblay

MUSIC IS THE BEAT TO MY

HEART

NICKNAMES: Vallejo, Fatback, Berto, Sasquash, Mayonnaise Boy

BESTFRIENDS: Chris, Richie, Bobby, Stick, Desiree, Tuty, Rose

GOALS: Graduate from High School and college. Start my own family and live a great life.

ADVISE FOR FRESHMEN: Stay out of trouble and get your school stuff done. Make the right decisions.

Paul Wood

Nickname:
Paul Wall, Superman. Ha ha!

Activities:
football, music, chilling with the homies.

Best Friends:
Jamielyn, Corey, Bibz, Tyler, Cj, Tom, Bob, Gordo, Conley, etc.

Favorite band/music:
Anything with a sick flow & Beat..

Wanted to but never did:
Talent Show..

Advice for freshmen:
Make peace with upper classmen and have big friends.

Never Forget when:
We beat Barlett twice!
Where are my pioneers?!
Tantasqua got away easy!

Cheffin' making benji's!!!

Asia Worthen

Nickname: Aishy

Activities: football, soccer and softball.

Best freinds: Alex & Tiha-Marie

Want to: Travel the world with T!

Advice for freshmen: Stay in school, no matter what it takes. Finish. It's worth it!

Never forget when: I got attacked by the "police" while singing "We're all in this together," and surprising Tiha at karate class!

Future goals: To become a successful accountant.

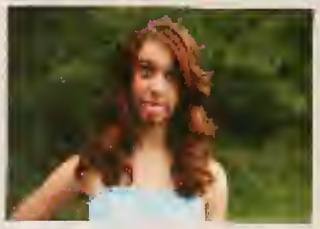
Rachel Young

I will never forget when: Britany fell on the stairs singing "I believe I fly" Or, my semi-embarrassing field day experience.

My favorite music: I love classic rock; like The Beatles. I love alternative music like, Lilly Allen, The Fray, Sugar Ray, Blink 182 and most 90's rock.

What I wish I did: I wish I took more risks, you know just gone out and had more fun.

My future goals: To become a hippie...just kidding. In all seriousness, I do want to live greener, more eco friendly . My career goal is to become a Fashion Designer.



Jeremy Wright

Best Friends:
Brandon, Brett, Bruce, Cody, Nick, Jeff, Randy, and Tyler.
If I forgot you, too bad!

Activities:
Being a nerd, and existing.

Samatha,
Here you are, a beautiful young lady and beginning a new adventure in your life. Today is your stepping stone to become anything you believe you can be. We are so proud of you. It seems just like yesterday,

"I hear babies cryin', I watch them grow, they'll learn much more than I'll ever know, and I think to myself, what a wonderful world. Yes, I think to myself, what a wonderful world."

We Love you.

2010 Prophecy

by

Jody Hayes

It is the year 2035, and the Southbridge High School Class of 2010 is meeting for their 25th class reunion at the Mill Street Brewery. Richie Alcantara, a famous NBA Basketball player for the Boston Celtics would have hosted the party with his best friend, Joe Goudreau at their multi-million dollar mansion, but since the class is so small, they decided not to waste their time or money. Instead, Michael Agbortoko, the new Prince of Camaroon, has decided to host it himself. Ashley Anctil and Molly O'Brien, two very famous artists, have decorated the entire hall for the occasion. The party commences with Kiara Camacho singing the National Anthem. As she finishes up, Jose Vallejo, the DJ for the night, begins to spin some ill nasty beats.

Scott Dowling, the most recent winner of the hit television show Are You Smarter Than a Fifth Grader?, arrives and instantly makes his way to the dance. Bobby Marnalse, the world's skinniest police officer, has decided to be in charge of the bar to keep an eye on everyone's behavior. He, of course, is assisted by personal trainer, Alex "look at those guns" LePage..

In one corner of the room Donnie Altiery, a world famous barber, is cutting designs into the scalps of Luis Santos, Luis Montalvo, Tony Perez, Jose Rosario, and Edgar Ortiz (who is scared to dirty his freshly ironed plaid shirt.) Rose Rivera, who still has her braces on, and whose dimples have gotten even bigger, arrives with Lesliann DeLeon and Hashian Rosario, who are now married and have twelve children. After them, Analis Rozo rolls in on a wheelchair because she has broken both of her legs tin a performance of The Nutcracker.

As the party lingers on, D'Arron McCoy arrives, spotting his old friend Leo Ortega, and runs up to him making strange noises and performing excessive and unnecessarily long high-fives. The next couple to arrive is Jamielyn Maldonado and Paul Wood, who have brought along their seven curly haired, blue-eyed, children.. Brittany Zella and Rachel Young show up next. Haydee Orta's infectious laugh causes Brittany to emit a high-pitch giggle that breaks every glass in a 10 foot radius.. All of this noise bothers Kelsi Burns, the newest manager of the CVS Pharmacy in Southbridge, who tells everyone to "shut up."

The world's greatest video game champion, Jeremy Wright, comes in with news that Bruce Lopez couldn't make it because he is in Japan designing a new video game system for Nintendo.. Their friend, Nick Ward, arrives alone, wearing the same Boston Bruins jersey that he always wore in high school. Nick's best friend, Dylan, couldn't make it because we didn't know his exact address on planet Potato.

As a limo pulls into the driveway, a red carpet is rolled across the threshold, and fireworks begin to go off. Mary Chouinard and Alina Rudnieva, who now live together in New York City as fashion designers, arrive escorted by Cody Mauke, and of course, are fashionably late. They are now co-owners of a hot new clothing line called Russian Perfection.

The new Bank supervisor at Southbridge High School, Jody Hayes, walks in with Alysha Healy, who is giving everyone she sees the "stank face". Behind them are Kelly Blake, the owner of a children's hospital, and her best friend Ryan Olszta, a retired Army lieutenant. Luckily for Chris Hernandez, 25 years has been long enough for him to grow a full length mustache.

Desiree Quinones arrives late because she couldn't decide which jean skirt she wanted to wear.

With her are Sarah Maldonado, Sheila Miranda, Jonathan Gonzalez, Yomary Rojas, Miliann Santiago, and Jon Beauchamp, who's still wearing shorts. Nick Bibeau, however, never shows up at all because he accidentally went to the Bay Path reunion instead.

Steph Rossi walks into the party alone, but is soon followed by Emily Brogna, who is wearing the exact same thing. Steph passes out from the shock, and sadly, she is removed from the party by Nancy Githui, an EMT for the Southbridge Fire Department, who could have seriously used the help of Nurse Kelsie Tremblay, who, of course shows up almost two hours late.

Rafael Rosado, was known for his fiery red hair, is kicked out of the party because he is unrecognizable due to the fact that he has permanently died his hair brown. This commotion is soon forgotten when a loud crash outside shakes the entire building. As everyone runs outside to check what has happened, the entire class of 2010 witnesses Gabby Palaez crash her soccer mom van into the brick wall just outside of the party. The passenger of the car, Danielle Lafleche, owner and creator of a super strength anti-perspirant deodorant, dramatically informs the crowd that Gabby was simply trying to do her makeup and text her husband, Tony Perez, while driving. Alexia Collazo, who was also in the van, jumps out from the back seat. She begins "yelling" at Gabby, but since she constantly has a smile on her face, everyone simply ignores her.

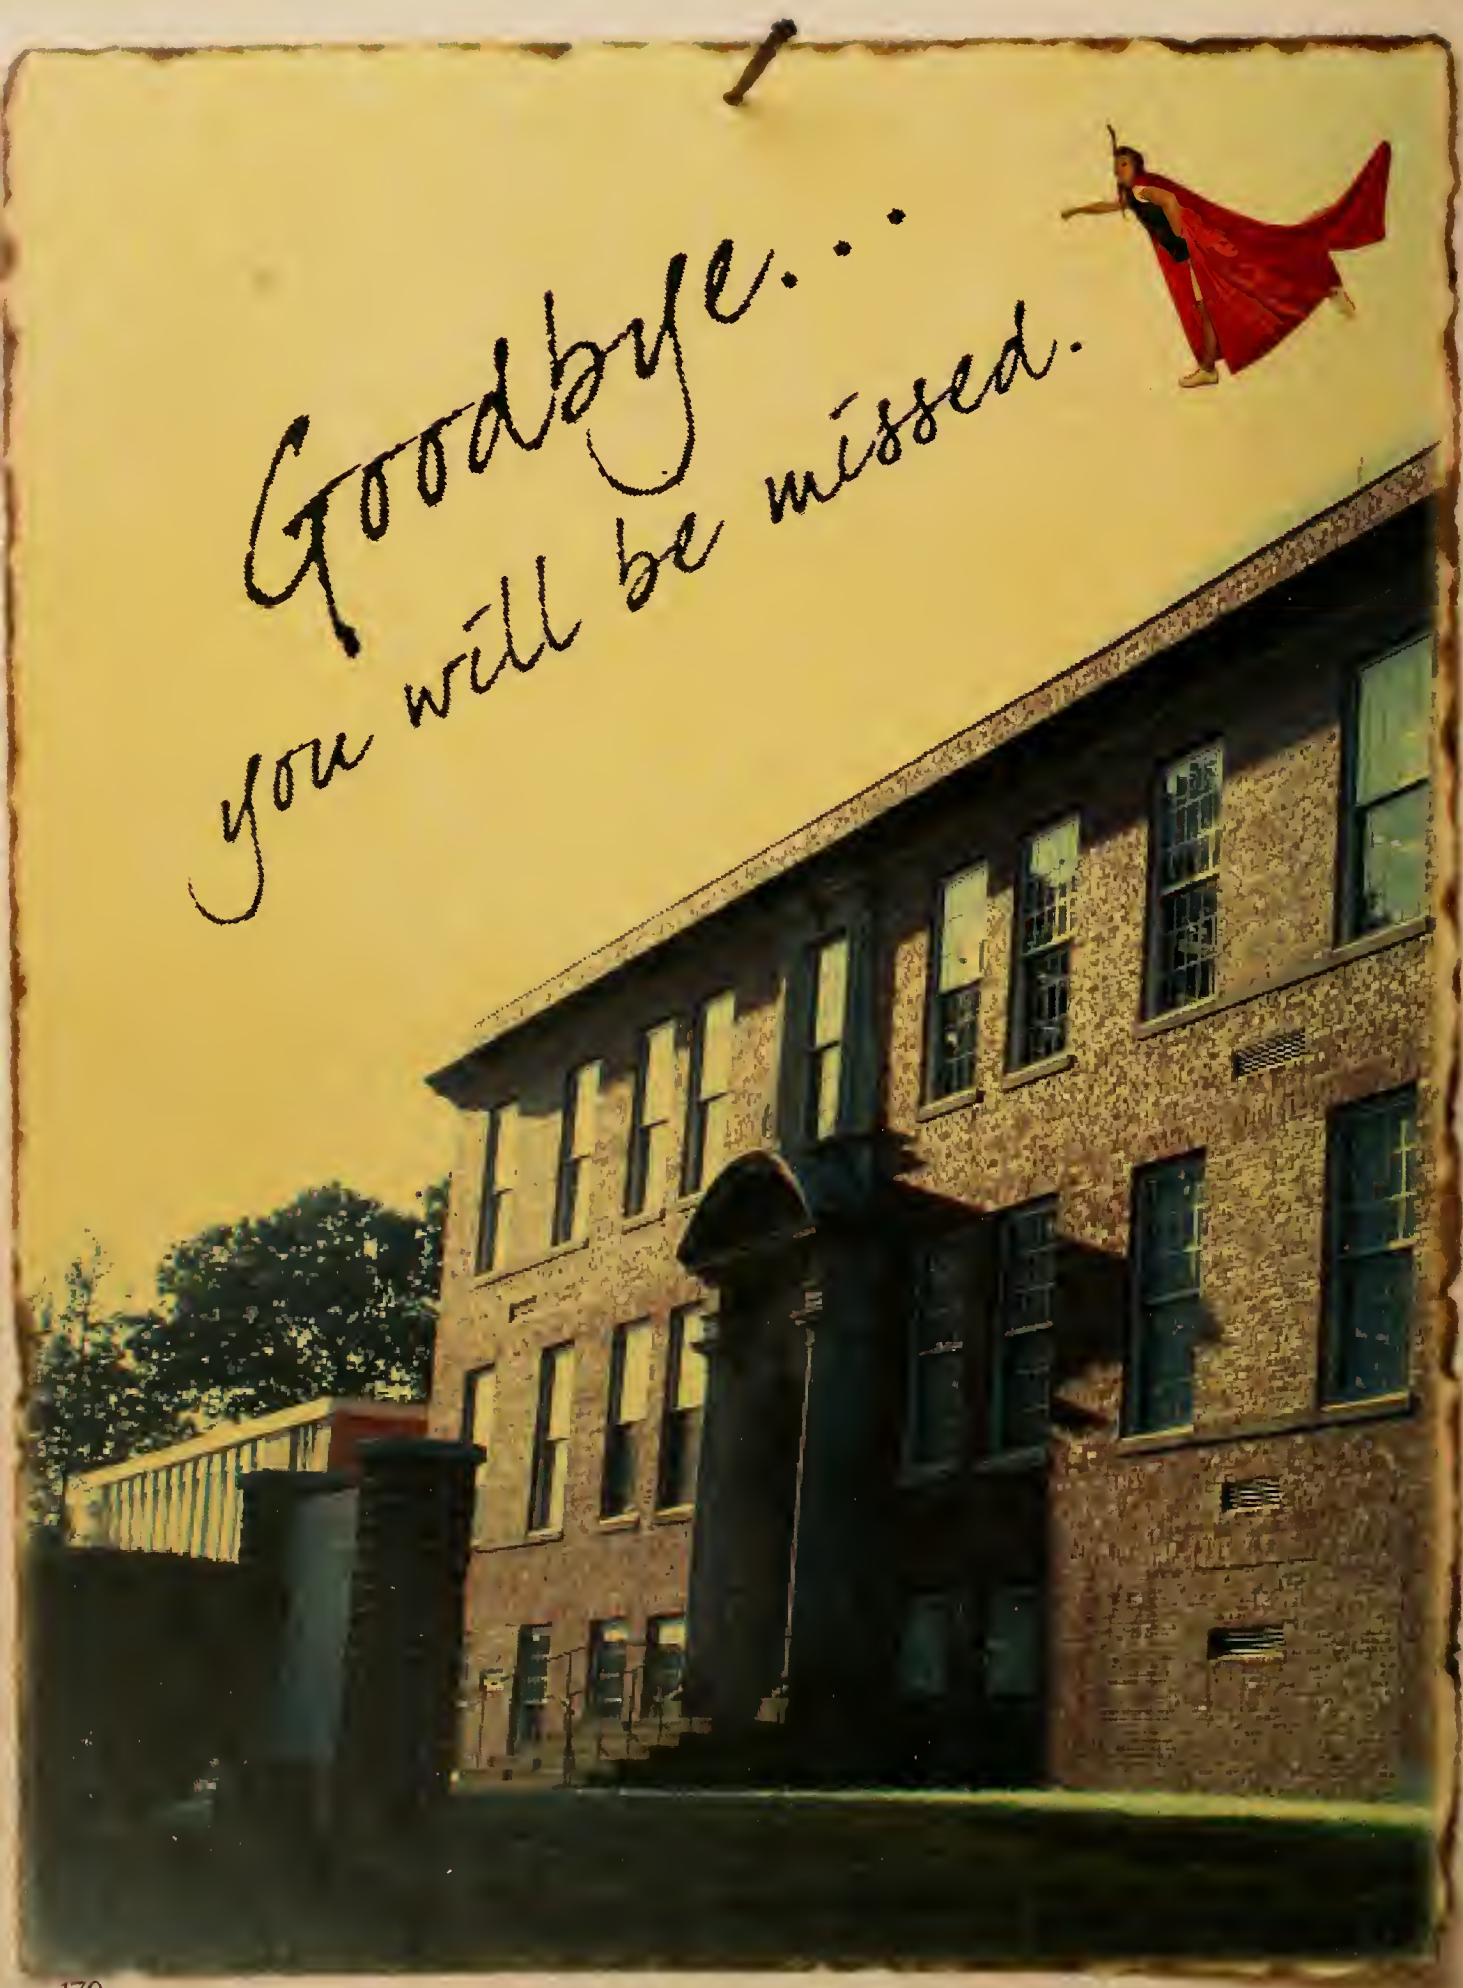
As everyone goes back inside to the party, veterinarian, Sam Jones arrive with friends Nicole Shilinksi and Kirsty McCormick. They sit with old friends Molly, Ashley, Rachel and Brittany. As Nicholas "Vito" Labonte arrives, he makes a b-line straight to their table. Consequently, every time Brittany even makes a noise, he makes it a point to mimick her, word for word, in a high pitched voice

After everyone shows up, the party begins to get interesting. Caesar Jubin begins kicking around anything he can find that resembles a soccerball, while Sandra Cartagena starts telling everyone what is on her mind, and Brett French begins to tell her that she is wrong, because, you know, Brett French knows everything.

"In The Air" begins playing in the background, and Iesha Torres gets up from her table, dragging Brittany Smith along with her. She begins to dance, and everyone gets up and follows her to the dance floor. Unfortunately for Marianne Castellano, her hair has gotten so long that every time she tries to dance, she trips over it and hits her face on a table. Sadly, Asia Worthen needs to leave the party early for her night shift as Wal*Mart manager.

As the party comes to a close, Shalynn Claudio, who was recently selected to be the new Superintendent in Southbridge, offers a final toast...

"Kiss this Class Goodbye."



Goodbye...
you will be missed.
